

BA Euroflyer receives Air Operator's Certificate

Dear Travel Partner,

We are delighted to inform you that on 29 November 2022, BA Euroflyer, a wholly owned subsidiary of British Airways operating from London Gatwick, received its Air Operator's Certificate (AOC) and Operating Licence from the UK Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

This will not impact the customer experience in any way. The only change customers may notice is on their itinerary, which will now say 'Operated by BA Euroflyer'.

Customers flying with BA Euroflyer will continue to receive the same premium service as on mainline British Airways flights, including a generous baggage allowance, complimentary drink and snacks, free seat selection at minus 24 hours and frequent flyer benefits from their Executive Club membership. And customers flying in Club Europe (business class) will also enjoy a premium check-in area, lounge access and a complimentary gourmet meal and bar service on board.

BA Euroflyer plans to operate from London Gatwick to more than 30 destinations in Summer 2023.

We look forward to welcoming you and your customers on board BA Euroflyer very soon.

Kind regards

British Airways
