

Partial change of Minimum Connecting Time (MCT) at Haneda Airport

Dear Travel Partners,

Thank you for your continued support of Japan Airlines.

With the recovery of international flights by various airlines at Haneda Airport, many customers are unable to transfer to the domestic flights they choose successfully due to increased waiting time at immigration check.

In order to improve the situation, we would like to inform you that a part of the Minimum Connecting Time (MCT) at Haneda Airport will be changed temporarily.

1. Start date of application

From boarding on Thursday, April 27, 2023 ~ Saturday, October 28, 2023

2. System reflection date

From Wednesday, April 19, 2023 after 4:00 p.m.(Japan time)

3. MCTs to be changed

Connections from JAL/AA/HA-operated flights (international) to JAL-operated flights (domestic) at Haneda Airport

4. Details of Change

【Before change】 : 70 minutes or 80 minutes

【After change】 : 90 minutes

Connection pattern at Haneda Airport	Before change	After change
JAL Group international flights → JAL Group domestic flights	More than 70 minutes	More than 90 minutes
Other airline (AA) international flights →JAL Group domestic flights
Other airline (HA) international flights →JAL Group domestic flights	More than 80 minutes

5. About reservation

<The reservation already made (the reservation has already been issued on and before 19APR23)

The MCT (more than 70/80 minutes) before change can still be used, but there is a high probability that the passengers will miss their transfer flights. If the customers prefer, please change the flights with the new MCT (more than 90 minutes).

<Not be issued and the new reservation>

Regardless of the boarding date, please make the reservation with the new MCT (more than 90 minutes).
