

Explore Miri, a paradise for divers!

Miri, the second largest city in Sarawak, Malaysia is located on the northwest coast of the island of Borneo- the third largest island in the world.

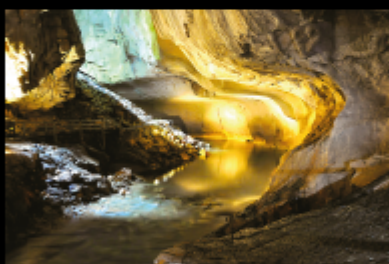

In Miri, you will have plenty of diverse green activities from deep-sea diving, caving to scenic beaches and more! Miri is also Sarawak's main northern gateway to world-renowned UNESCO World Heritage site Gunong Mulu National Park as well as Niah National Park and Miri-Sibuti Coral Reefs National Park.

Divers can explore Miri's underwater paradise in Miri-Sibuti Coral Reefs National Park, the second largest offshore park in Sarawak. It is the breeding ground for at least 800 species of hard and soft corals.

Mulu's Deer Cave is also the second largest cave passage in the world, with a chamber that can fit up to 40 Boeing 747 airplanes inside!
