

Weather Disruption at London Airports

Dear Partner,

Unfortunately, due to weather conditions, we are facing disruption to a number of our short haul services at London airports, including London Heathrow, London Gatwick and London City airport.

We apologise for any inconvenience that this may cause to your travel plans.

Due to the weather, we are allowing our customers whose flights are still operating the flexibility to make voluntary changes either by using ba.com, via The Engagement Centres, or via Travel Agent. Please find the options available to you here.

Kind regards,

British Airways
